RECREATIONS

ART.

The business of exhibiting motion or animated pictures has long since passed the experimental stage, and is today firmly established as one of the most popular forms of legitimate amusement for the masses, not only in this country, but abroad. The stereopticon with its hand-changed glass slides, has given way to the cinematograph, excepting upon the lecture platform, and even here the newer mechanism is widely used. The public has become critical and it judges a moving picture establishment by the character and quality of films presented quite in the same manner as it would a theatrical show. No more will crude effects, or scratched and worn-out films be tolerated.

At the Art theater the patrons know that they can always depend upon the best going, and in their change of program today the management will have something extra good in store for the audience. The clever Armon Bros. will appear for the last time prior to their departure for Hilo. Charges of admission as usual.

SEE THIS SHOW.

The very latest things in minstrelsy, the latest steps in dancing and the most popular songs will be heard at the Hawaiian Opera House on Friday and Saturday nights when the "Jolly Tars" will hold forth for the benefit of the Associated Charities of this place.

The program includes the latest in everything that is ever put before the public and will be rendered by the best comedians, the best singers and the best dancers in Uncle Sam's navy. The last appearance of the boys here is still green in the memory of those who heard them and Whittaker's dancing fingers as a pleasant dream. There are as good dancers with the tars this time and possibly better singers. There is a lot of first class comedians who will make it lively for everybody and make those who fail to attend feel sore at themselves for overlooking the show.

Seats are now on sale at the Bergstrom Music store and should be bought without delay, the demand is great.

PRINCE KINYOSHI DINED BY TAFT

BEVERLY (Mass.), Sept. 10. — President Taft received today in informal audience, Prince Kinyoshi Kunn, grandson of the Emperor of Japan, and through him sent a message of regard and personal good will to his distinguished grandfather. The President was received most cordially by the Emperor of Japan on the occasion of his trip around the world as Secretary of War. President Taft's greeting to the Prince and his party was most cordial. The exchange of courtesies was more or less stilted, however, because of the necessity of employing an interpreter throughout. The President asked after the health and well-being of the Emperor and all of his family. In return, the Prince expressed the sincere hope of the Emperor that the President and his family would be found in the best of health.

After the formal toasts had been drunk, the Prince and Princess and their attendants sat down to tea with the President and his guests. After the call on the President, the Prince and Princess motored to the home of Henry C. Frick, and thence to the home of W. J. Boardman to pay brief calls. The party returned to Boston late in the afternoon.
